

Festival Sinfonietta Linz

The founder and Artistic Director is the violinist Lui Chan, 1st Concert Master (Co-Leader) of the Bruckner Orchestra Linz. The repertoire comprises classical, romantic and also contemporary works.

Invitations have taken the Festival Sinfonietta Linz to many European and Asian countries and to many important festivals (Serenade Concerts Linz, Musica Sacra, Music Summer Attnang-Puchheim, concert series Ried i.I., Schärtinger Festwochen, Abonnement Concert Villach, Lui Chan's 1. Klassik Engerwitzdorf, Memminger Master Concerts, Music in the Einsiedeln monastery, Abonnement Concert Győr and the “Sunday Matinéés” at the Brucknerhaus Linz).

After a major success in the concert series Sunday Matinéés in the Brucknerhaus Linz in 2002, the Festival Sinfonietta Linz is now a fixed point in the series.

The New Year concerts of classical waltzes directed by Lui Chan on the violin are also a great hit, both at home and abroad.

The Festival Sinfonietta Linz is one of Austria's leading chamber orchestras, having worked with a wide range of internationally renowned soloists, conductors and composers such as Michael Martin Kofler, Milan Turkovic, Roland Batik, Maki Namekawa, Daniela Barcellona, Regine Kofler, Johannes Wildner, Howard Griffiths, Johi Hattori, Alessandro Vitiello, Christian Schulz, as well as Balduin Sulzer and Franz Xaver Frenzel.
